

Name: Charlotte Morphet

Committee Position: Chair

Previous Position: Vice Chair and before that I sat without portfolio.

How long have you been on the Committee: Since about 2010

Job: Planner at CgMs

First Planning Job: Intern (Planning Policy Team) at Royal Borough of Kingston upon Thames

LinkedIn Profile: <http://www.linkedin.com/pub/charlotte-morphet-mrtpi/20/844/2b3>

Random Fact: Being an extra on the Bill and singing carols on Blue Peter.

More About Charlotte:

Charlotte is currently part of the planning team at CgMs Consulting Ltd. Her time at CgMs is spent advising a range clients across London and the south east on planning issues. Before working at CgMs Charlotte was an Enforcement Officer at Wandsworth.

Charlotte firmly believes that her time spent volunteering at RTPI London has helped her grow in confidence and help her advance her career in planning. Charlotte has gain transferrable skills through organising social and CPD events and now as Chair for the Young Planners and Junior Vice Chair for the region.

Charlotte is also the founder of Women in Planning – London a network for women working in planning in the capital city.

Name: George Weeks

Committee Position: Vice Chair

Previous Position: Finance Rep

How long have you been on the Committee: Since January 2012

Job: Urban Designer at Transport for London

Previous Planning Positions: Graduate Fellow in Sustainable Architecture & Urbanism at The Prince's Foundation for Building Community and Research Assistant, Department of Urban Studies, University of Glasgow

LinkedIn Profile: <http://uk.linkedin.com/pub/george-weeks/14/5a/409>

Random fact: I once drove 4,500 miles from the UK to the Gambia in a £200 Kia Pride

George joined the TfL Urban Design team from The Prince's Foundation for Building Community, where he was a 2010 - 2012 Graduate Fellow in Sustainable Architecture and Urbanism. At TfL, George's portfolio includes the urban design of the High Speed 2 terminus at Euston and the release of the Valuing Urban Realm Toolkit; a mechanism to demonstrate the public and private benefits of investing in high quality public space. In 2009 he was awarded the RTPI Award for Outstanding Achievement in Planning Education, followed by a Commendation at the Scottish Awards for Quality in Planning.

Name: Rob Krzyszowski

Committee Position: Past Chair

Previous Position: Chair

How long have you been on the Committee: Since Summer 2010

Job: Deputy Team Leader, Development Plans at London Borough of Hammersmith and Fulham

Previous Planning Positions: Planning Assistant at Tweedale, Planning Assistant at Turley Associate, Senior Planning Assistant at Birmingham City Council and Policy Planner at London Borough of Ealing.

LinkedIn Profile: <http://uk.linkedin.com/in/robzowski>

Random Fact: I appeared as a contestant on the Weakest Link when I was 18!

In my role, I chair the meetings of RTPI London volunteers who organise free and low-cost events and activities in London for our members throughout the year. I have organised events on the Community Infrastructure Levy (CIL) and Viability in Planning and also assisted in many other events such as the RTPI London Planning Conference in 2011 and the RTPI President's Visit in 2012.

In 2012 I also chaired the Young Planners arm of RTPI London which focuses on delivering events and activities for those who have been working in planning for less than 10 years. The committee organised many events including speed networking, pub quizzes, networking socials, university talks and APC talks. We also organised the national RTPI Young Planners Conference which was a particular highlight to be part of.

Name: Alice Bates

Committee Position: Without Portfolio

How long have you been on the Committee: Since January 2013

Job: Planner at London Borough of Bromley

First Planning Job: Planner at London Borough of Newham

LinkedIn Profile: <http://www.linkedin.com/pub/alice-bates/59/927/b25>

Random Fact: I play for the East London Hockey Team and enjoy sailing

Alice started her planning career working for the London Borough of Newham as an enforcement officer. In this role she developed a strong grounding in planning legislation by serving enforcement notices. After Newham she worked London Borough of Hackney in Development Control working on case load of minor planning applications. These skills were further developed London Borough of Wandsworth working on a larger case more complicated case load. After 1 year and a half in public sector Alice took a position at Primesight advising advertisements. Alice currently works for the London Borough of Bromley in the Development Control team.

Name: Hannah Blunstone

Committee Position: Communications Rep

How long have you been on the Committee: Since January 2013

Job: Senior Planner at WYG

First Planning Job: Summer intern at Farrells

LinkedIn Profile: <http://uk.linkedin.com/pub/hannah-blunstone/37/794/a30>

Random Fact: I am a keen runner and completed my first marathon, the London Marathon in April this year.

Hannah is currently working at WYG in London, working on a range of retail and mixed use schemes in town and out of centre locations. She has worked in the London planning team for five years since graduating from UCL, and has gained a range of experience in project managing and delivering strategic retail and commercial schemes predominately in the south east and London.

Name: Luke Cadman

Committee Position: Without Portfolio

Previous Position: Without Portfolio

How long have you been on the Committee: Since early 2012

Job: Senior Planner at Rapleys LLP

Previous Planning Positions: Planning Officer at London Borough of Newham, Assistant Planner at Turley Associates and Assistant Surveyor at Lambert Smith Hampton

LinkedIn Profile: <http://uk.linkedin.com/pub/luke-cadman/46/bb4/727>

Random Fact: I am a very keen cyclist and cover over 100km most weeks

Luke has been working as a Town Planner for the past three years. Luke is currently a Senior Planner with Rapleys LLP and prior to this worked as a Planning Officer for the London Borough of Newham. Luke has experience working on a variety of projects from small scale householder applications up to major mixed-use schemes, such as the Olympic Legacy masterplan. He has given evidence at numerous public inquiries and in the Courts and, given his enforcement experience, is very familiar with the legislative framework of planning. Luke is a very keen cyclist and is very proud of his 'stable' of bicycles.

Name: Marlon Deam

Committee Position: International Development and Careers Development Rep

How long have you been on the Committee: Since January 2013

Job: Planner at London Borough of Newham

First Planning Job: Development Control Planner at Port Adelaide Enfield Council

LinkedIn Profile: <http://uk.linkedin.com/in/marlondeam/>

Random Fact: Having both a British and Australian passport means I get to side with whichever sporting team is winning at the time!

Marlon is a planner working at the London Borough of Newham where he works on creating positive planning solutions. After graduating from the University of South Australia he went on to work in both the public and private sector, notably working for Adelaide firm MasterPlan for 2 years, before making the move to London. Marlon has both a British and Australian passport means I get to side with whichever sporting team is winning at the time!

Name: Chris Deeks

Committee Position: Careers Rep and Social Rep

How long have you been on the Committee: Since January 2013

Job: Assistant Planner at Turley Associates

Previous Planning Positions: Assistant Policy Planner at Brentwood Borough Council and Research Assistant at the City of London

LinkedIn Profile: http://www.linkedin.com/profile/view?id=97509498&trk=hb_tab_pro_top

Random Fact: I nearly kayaked over a crocodile in Cairns when travelling the East Coast of Australia for 4 months!

Chris is as Assistant Planner in the retail team at Turley Associates, working for a number of private clients throughout central London. He has assisted with a range of mixed use commercial schemes in addition to undertaking a strong monitoring/research role, advising clients on emerging policy and changes within planning legislation. Since studying Real Estate and Development Planning at Reading University, Chris has worked within the public and private sector. Chris is one of the careers and social representatives, having joined the committee in January 2013.

Name: Andrew Dorrian

Committee Position: Communications Rep

Previous Position: Transport Rep and Communications Rep

How long have you been on the Committee: Since November 2011

Job: Planner at Transport for London

First Planning Job: Student Planner at Sunderland City Council

LinkedIn Profile: uk.linkedin.com/pub/andrew-dorrian/b/90b/125

Random Fact: Andrew is a self confessed chocoholic and is known in the office for always has a full drawer with sugar related snacks!

Andrew is a Planner at TfL, focused in South West London, ensuring the integration of planning and transportation. Working on a variety of cases, policy documents and section 278 work, Andrew is merging his personal interest in transport with planning. Andrew undertook the Degree, CPP and Diploma route at Newcastle University between 2009 and 2011. Following the conclusion of the course Andrew converted his Diploma in Planning into a Masters in Town Planning by way of adissertation. Andrew has a keen interest in Planning governance and his study explored the implications of the contemporary reforms of the planning system on the activities of planners and their ability to make balanced decisions. Andrew is one of the communications representatives, having spent the previous year as a communications representative and helped organise the YP Conference Study Tours. Andrew additionally is RTPI London's Honorary Secretary for 2013.

Name: Stuart Eaves

Committee Position: Inter-Professional Rep

How long have you been on the Committee: Since January 2013

Job: Architectural Assistant at Kyson Design Ltd

LinkedIn Profile: http://www.linkedin.com/profile/view?id=172003014&trk=tab_pro

Random Fact: Once attempted to cycle from John O'Groats to Landsend...didn't quite make it, but it was lovely.

Stuart is a planning and architecture graduate working at Kyson Design, a small architectural practice based in Shoreditch. Projects vary in scale and complexity from individual houses to boutique hotels and are spread across London. Stuart has worked at Kyson for six months and only recently moved to London, but now spends most of his spare time exploring the big city.

Name: Joanne Ellingham

Committee Position: International Rep (2013)

How long have you been on the Committee: Since January 2013

Job: Town & Regional Planner at HTA Architects

Previous Planning Position: Planning Officer (Spatial Planning) at Broadland District Council

LinkedIn Profile: <http://www.linkedin.com/pub/amy-jones-mrtpi/30/978/12b>

Random Fact: Whilst living in Australia I did do a 14,000 ft skydive in Cairns holding a tissue!

As a planning consultant at HTA, Jo supports the delivery of a number of housing led regeneration projects throughout the UK. Prior to this Jo worked as Planning Officer at Broadland District Council supporting the production of development plan documents, neighbourhood plans and monitored the implementation of planning policy. As a volunteer at The Prince's Regeneration Trust Jo gained an insight into the management of heritage led regeneration projects. She studied at Anglia Ruskin University and in 2012 received the Hays Town Planning student of the year award.

Name: Mary Fortune

Committee Position:

How long have you been on the Committee: Since May 2013

Job: Planning Assistant at Transport for London

LinkedIn Profile: <http://uk.linkedin.com/pub/mary-fortune/66/b21/872>

Random Fact: I am CLSA qualified et je peux parler francais

Having completed her degree in 2012, Mary is currently studying for her Diploma in Town Planning at Newcastle University whilst working at Transport for London and is looking to study for a masters at UCL in September. Mary is in the planning obligations team at TfL and works closely with Mayoral and Borough CILs, Crossrail s106 and larger applications which are referable to the Mayor of London.

Name: Lisa Hall

Committee Position: Inter-professional Rep

How long have you been on the Committee: Since January 2013

Job: Senior Consultant at Quod

First Planning Job: Atkins, Nottingham

LinkedIn Profile: http://www.linkedin.com/profile/view?id=150531027&trk=tab_pro

Random Fact: I ran Kuwait's first organised 10 km run and falo português. Eu sou um urbanista!

Lisa is a Senior Consultant at Quod, working in the EIA team. She is a Chartered Planner and has over 5 years environmental management and planning experience in the UK and overseas. In this time, she has worked alongside several multidisciplinary teams to coordinate and prepare EIA's for a broad range of projects across sectors for the public and private sector, including several large infrastructure projects. She is also experienced in the preparation of masterplan proposals, planning applications, planning policy analysis and interpretation, and evidence based research and analysis.

Name: Sam Jackson

Committee Position: Without Portfolio

Previous Position: Social Rep

How long have you been on the Committee: Since September 2011

Job: Assistant Planner at CBRE

First Planning Job: Assistant planner at Sue Hudson Planning and Urban Design

LinkedIn Profile: uk.linkedin.com/pub/samantha-jackson/30/178/818/

Random Fact: In her spare time, Sam is a keen baker and keeps her friends and colleagues well supplied with cakes!

Sam is an Assistant Planner at CBRE and since joining the graduate scheme in September 2011, she has worked on a variety of schemes for both public and private sector clients across the UK. She has a particular focus on retail planning and was recently involved with gaining planning permission for the first new concept 'David Lloyd Studio' in the UK. Prior to joining CBRE, Sam gained experience working for a planning consultancy in Scotland, specialising in the planning of small scale wind turbines. Sam was actively involved with organising the London YP Conference last year and primarily responsible for the evening social and walking tours. This year she splits her time between the Young Planners Committee and the Regional Activities Committee. In her spare time, Sam is a keen baker and keeps her friends and colleagues well supplied with cakes!

Name: Amy Jones

Committee Position: Joint Inter-professional Rep (2013)

How long have you been on the Committee: Since January 2013

Job: Senior Planner at Lambert Smith Hampton

First Planning Job: Assistant Planner rising to Senior Planner at the Development Planning Partnership (DPP)

LinkedIn Profile: <http://www.linkedin.com/pub/amy-jones-mrtpi/30/978/12b>

Random Fact: There is a 24 year age gap between Amy and her younger sister

Amy is a Senior Planner in the Planning and Development Consultancy in LSH, she works with a mix of private and public sector clients, predominately in the south east but also across the UK. Amy works on a variety of development projects including major mixed use schemes, estate management and growth, nuclear decommissioning, applications on behalf of LPAs and planning for events. After graduating with a Masters degree from Cardiff University in 2008 Amy started work as an Assistant Planner at DPP in their former London office, rising to Senior Planner in 2011 working predominantly on retail, mixed used schemes, advertising and heritage projects before joining LSH. She joined the RTPI YP Committee at the start of 2013 and has organised a Viability CPD training event for young property professionals.

Name: Annabel Osborne

Committee Position: Inter-Professional Rep and Social Rep

Previous Position: Inter-Professional Rep and Social Rep

How long have you been on the Committee: Since June 2011

Job: Planning Information Officer at London Borough of Tower Hamlets

First Planning Job: Trainee/Graduate Planner – Osborne Construction

Random Fact: I took part in the London to Brighton bike ride last year dressed as a leopard (although I didn't manage to cycle up the big hill at the end!).

Annabel is currently working at the London Borough of Tower Hamlets having previously spent 18 months working at a construction company. She has helped organise several successful events including the national RTPI Young Planners Conference evening social.

Name: Hanan Osman

Committee Position: Student Rep

How long have you been on the Committee: Since January 2013

Job: Masters Student at Southbank University

Hanan is currently studying Masters in Town Planning at London Southbank University whilst working at African Development Trust. She is responsible for coordinating and supporting both national and international teams on various ecological and humanitarian projects.

Name: Alison Mackay

Committee Position: Communications Rep

Previous Position: Social Rep (2012)

How long have you been on the Committee: Since April 2012

Job: Planner at Colliers International

Previous Planning Position: Planning Assistant at Strutt & Parker LLP

LinkedIn Profile: <http://uk.linkedin.com/pub/alison-mackay-mrtpi/21/8b8/bb5>

Random Fact: After getting stranded in Krakow during the 'Ash crisis', I spent 24 hours on a very cramped coach crossing Europe to make it back to London. Needless to say I wouldn't recommend it!

Alison is a Planner in the Consulting Division of Colliers International, working for a number of private and public sector clients throughout the UK. She undertakes both strategic and development management projects for residential, employment, retail and mixed use schemes. Since graduating from Newcastle University in 2009, she has worked for property consultancies throughout the UK. Alison is one of the Communications representatives, having spent the previous year as one of the Social representatives primarily responsible for co-ordinating the well attended YP Conference Evening Dinner.

Name: Charlotte McManus

Committee Position: Without Portfolio

How long have you been on the Committee: Since February 2013

Job: Graduate Planner at Lightsource Renewable Energy

First Planning Job: Intern at Mid Sussex District Council

LinkedIn Profile: http://www.linkedin.com/profile/view?id=158194053&trk=hb_tab_pro_top

Random Fact: I am a keen hockey player, knitter and play the ukulele, although not all at the same time.

Since graduating from UCL in 2012, Charlotte has been working on large scale renewable energy projects at Lightsource Renewable Energy. She has been involved with some of the largest solar farms in the UK right from initial desktop assessments through to community consultation and subsequent planning permissions.

Name: Tom Murray Willis

Committee Position: Without Portfolio

Previous Position: Transport Rep

How long have you been on the Committee: Since 2011

Job: Transport Planner, Contemporary Transport

LinkedIn Profile: <http://uk.linkedin.com/pub/tom-murray-willis/15/2a0/809>

Random Fact: The final part of his Masters in Town and Country Planning was undertaken in Nijmegen in Holland, which so inspired him he cycled home over 300 miles in flip-flops!

Tom has been a Consultant with Contemporary Transport since 2009. His work focuses on the research, and practical implementation of innovative sustainable transport planning strategies for major developments, and local authorities. Work is never dull as the specialist practice develops integrated transport demand management (TDM) plans for clients around the world.

Last year he was the joint Transport representative and was partly responsible for pulling together the delegate pack for the YP conference. This year he joint representative for tours on the RTPI London Regional Activities Committee.

Name: Mathieu Rogers

Committee Position: No portfolio

How long have you been on the Committee: Since January 2013

Job: Economic Regeneration Project Manager, Ealing Council

First Planning Job: Assistant Planning Policy Officer at Ealing Council

LinkedIn Profile: http://www.linkedin.com/profile/view?id=40544046&trk=hb_tab_pro_top

Random Fact: I have visited all but one continent in the world and plan to conquer Antarctica before I am 50!

Name: Sara Sweeney

Committee Position: Social Rep

How long have you been on the Committee: Since January 2013

Job: Graduate Planner at Persimmon Homes South East

First Planning Job: Intern at Turley Associates, Edinburgh

LinkedIn Profile: <http://www.linkedin.com/pub/sara-sweeney/36/328/58a>

Random Fact: In the last 5 years I've lived in Dublin, Dundee, Edinburgh, London and Kent!

Sara is Graduate Planner at Persimmon Homes South East, working in the Strategic Land Department. In this position, Sara assists the team with identifying and promoting strategic housing land opportunities in the South East Region. Since Graduating from the University of Dundee in August 2011, Sara has worked as a Graduate Intern at Turley Associates (Edinburgh) and as a Graduate Retail Planner at Planning Perspectives LLP before joining Persimmon Homes in March 2013. Sara is one of the social representatives on the Committee. Fun fact, in the last 5 years Sara has lived in Dublin, Dundee, Edinburgh, London and Kent!

Name: Adrian Walker

Committee Position: CPD Rep

How long have you been on the Committee: Since December 2012

Job: Planning Officer at London Borough of Tower Hamlets

Previous Planning Position: Planner (Enforcement)at Wandsworth Council

LinkedIn Profile: <http://uk.linkedin.com/pub/adrian-walker/67/4b/4b7/>

Random Fact: Whilst at University in Bristol Adrian has a part time job as an Extra and has featured in TV programmes such as Gavin and Stacey, Dr Who and Casualty.

Adrian is currently working as a Development Management Planner Officer for the London Borough of Tower Hamlets. He has a Masters in Town and County Planning from the University of the West of England which included a semester on an Erasmus programme in The Netherlands. In his current position he is responsible for determining a variety of planning applications, from lawful development certificates to complex mixed use developments.